

Drought has been declared in the Klamath Basin, tensions are rising and stakeholders need leadership from Congress.

Farmers, ranchers, tribes, fishermen, and conservationists agree:

- ▶ The Klamath Settlement Agreements are the best hope to establish reliable water supplies, restore salmon populations, reduce power rates and provide economic vitality for Basin communities. The owner of the dams is on board too, saying the Settlement is the best choice for ratepayers.

It is urgent that Congress advance the cooperative solutions in the Settlement Agreements now.

THE PEOPLE OF THE KLAMATH BASIN CAN'T AFFORD TO WAIT.
